Anthracite Mining Heritage Month

January 2025

The annual regional observance of Anthracite Mining Heritage Month takes place during January 2025. The event focuses on the unique history and culture of the anthracite region of Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Throughout January 2025, WVIA-FM—Public Radio in Northeastern and Central Pennsylvania—will offer anthracite region-related programming at the WVIA website, wvia.org/mining, which will include episodes from Erika Funke's ARTScene.

A variety of programs will be featured in Wilkes-Barre, Scranton, Plymouth, Pittston, Ashley, Hazleton, Hazle Township, Bethlehem and Pottsville. The public is cordially invited to attend the events, all of which are free of charge, except where indicated.
